

Welcome to Tillicum Village!

Since 1962, thousands of groups have visited Tillicum Village for the fresh salmon dinner and to experience the Northwest Coast Native American culture.

In Chinook jargon, the trade language of the northwest coast, "Tillicum" translates as friendly people. Located only 8 miles from Seattle's downtown waterfront on Blake Island State Park, this beautiful shoreside setting provides a perfect location, accommodating up to 1,000 guests.

Walk up a path strewn with white clamshells bleached by the sun and enjoy steaming clams in nectar broth. Dine in an authentic cedar longhouse, savor salmon baked over open fires on cedar stakes.

Enjoy a spellbinding dance performance, providing an emotional journey through the legends and dances of the Northwest Coast Indians.

Browse through our Gift Gallery of Northwest Coast Native American art, including hand carved masks, plaques, totem poles and beaded jewelry are available for purchase in the Gift Gallery

Explore the beautiful nature trails and beaches of Blake Island State Park.

Whole Chinook salmon cooking around an open alder-wood fire

"Dance on the Wind"
Produced by Greg Thompson Productions

Our Gift Gallery features many handcarved items from local artisans

Explore Blake Island State Park's 16 miles of trails and 5 miles of beaches

4:15PM - The 4-hour adventure to Tillicum Village on Blake Island State Park begins at Pier 55* on Seattle's central waterfront. Relax and enjoy the magnificent scenery during the one-hour cruise. Enjoy beverages from the no-host bar with a wide variety of beverages available to enjoy during your cruise.

5:15PM - When you arrive at Tillicum Village, make your way up to the longhouse along the pathway strewn with clam shells bleached by the sun.

Before you enter the longhouse, take a moment and enjoy an appetizer of clams and nectar. Be sure to crush those empty clam shells when you are finished. They're fun to smash and you will help preserve our path

Inside the longhouse, watch as whole Chinook salmon is cooked over an alder-wood fire on cedar stakes in the traditional Northwest Coast Indian style.

Your meal is served buffet-style. Menu: Traditional Indian-style Baked Salmon, Warm Tillicum Whole Grain Bread, New Red Potatoes, Long-Grain Wild Rice, Fresh Salad Bar, Boehm's Chocolate Salmon, Coffee, Tea, Lemonade

As you finish your meal, the lights dim while the myth and magic come to life in the spellbinding performance featuring the Tillicum Village dancers.

The highly acclaimed show leads visitors through an enchanting tour of the customs, beliefs and dances of the Northwest Coast Indians.

This 30-minute production, dances are representative of are the myths and legends from various tribes along the Northwest Coast, and are combined with the theatrics of the stage to enhance the ethnic and cultural heritage of an exceptional people.

After the show, you have approximately 30 minutes of free time when you can watch carving demonstrations...
...browse through the gift gallery featuring artwork of local artisans...

...or stroll along the pleasant beaches and forest trails.

7:30PM – Board the boat and enjoy the relaxing cruise back to Seattle.

8:30PM – Arrive in Seattle. Pier 55.